

KDI SCHOOL
of Public Policy and Management

Experience Sharing on Successful Program Organization and Delivery

Chung, Hye Kyung
KDI School Of Public Policy and Management

GDLN

First Video Conference at the KDI School

Subject	Rural Development Series
Session 1	Rural Community Development (March 9)
Session 2	Enhancing Productivity and Economic Development (March 21)
Goal	To Share Knowledge Through On–line Community
Participation	Number of Participants : 256 Connected Sites: 12 sites - AFDC, BRAC University, HDMC DLS, Mongolia DLC, TDLC, TERI, VDIC, University of Papua, World Bank (China, Indonesia, Papua New Guinea, Washington)

What made this program a Success

➤ How to Select a Topic

Survey
"What topics do you expect to be dealt with at the GDLN videoconference in the future?"

Case Series
 If the topic is included in the KDI School's course work, entitled "The Korea's Development Experience Case"

Course Work
 If the topic is related to KDI School's coursework

What made this program a Success

➤ Received Consulting on Program Design and Organization

What made this program a Success

➤ Inviting Top Resource Person in the Area

What made this program a Success

➤ Large Number of Participants

(Session 1 : 146, Session 2 : 110)

- Announced to KDI School
- Invited personnel from private and public institutes in Korea

Appreciate Your Efforts!!

What made this program a Success

➤ Refreshment

“A Loaf of Bread is Better than the Song of Many Birds”

Excellent, but still a long way to go....

Things To Be Improved

- Strengthen Regional Network
- Reach more and greater people and lasting impact
- Provide a virtual learning material

Thank You

